

Full Bio

Todd C. Villines, MD, FACC, FAHA, FSCCT

Todd C. Villines, M.D. completed undergraduate training at the United States Military Academy at West Point, NY where he graduated with honors as a Distinguished Graduate. Dr. Villines went on to complete his medical school training at the University of Oklahoma in Oklahoma City and his residency in Internal Medicine at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington, D.C. After serving as the Chief of Medical Residents, Dr. Villines completed fellowship training in Cardiovascular Diseases at Walter Reed Army Medical Center and the National Naval Medical Center (National Capital Consortium). He is member of the Alpha Omega Alpha (AOA) medical honor society and is board-certified in Internal Medicine, Cardiovascular Diseases, Cardiac Computed Tomography and Advanced Adult Echocardiography.

Dr. Villines is currently a Professor of Medicine at the Uniformed Services University School of Medicine in Bethesda, Maryland and an Assistant Clinical Professor of Medicine (Cardiology) at Georgetown University School of Medicine in Washington, D.C. Dr. Villines is also the Director of Cardiovascular Research and Cardiac CT and the Cardiology Fellowship Program Director at the Walter Reed National Military Medical Center in Bethesda, Maryland, where he is an active clinician, teacher and clinical researcher in the areas of cardiovascular imaging, anticoagulation, population outcomes studies and prevention.

An internationally-recognized clinical researcher in the areas of cardiac imaging, prevention and anticoagulation, Dr. Villines has published more than 130 peer-reviewed manuscripts, 2 books and 6 book chapters, with numerous publications having appeared in particularly high-impact journals such as The New England Journal of Medicine, Circulation, The European Heart Journal and the Journal of the American College of Cardiology, among many others. In addition, he is an Associate Editor for the Journal of Cardiovascular Computed Tomography (JCCT) and the Editor-in-Chief for the American College of Cardiology Cardiac CT Self-Assessment Program, 3rd Edition (CCT-SAP 3).

Dr. Villines is a Fellow of the American College of Cardiology (FACC), American Heart Association (FAHA) and a Fellow and Founding Member of the Society of Cardiovascular Computed Tomography (FSCCT). Dr. Villines is the President-elect of the Society of Cardiovascular CT (SCCT), is the immediate Past-President of the Greater Washington Region American Heart Association, serves on the Board of Governors and is the Chair of the Federal Cardiology Section and Chair-elect of the Imaging Council of the American College of Cardiology.